Budget of Interesting Items
from our Regular Correspondent.

Bisbee, September 15, 1896.
COPPERINGS.

Alvan Howe and Millie Keller were passengers for Tombstone this morning.

Yours truly leaves for a short visit to Tucson today, having been so unfortunate as to have been summoned as a juror for the September term of the U. S. court. We have managed to talk another guileless young man into trying his hand at items for a few days and trust that he will make things interesting for you. Look sharp and guess who he is.

The parties from here who are to serve as jurors at the September term of court at Tucson left this morning. There were quite a crowd of them and they all made up their minds that since they could not get out of going they would at least have a good time. The following is a list of the unfortunate. "Para-in Swift", Peter Jensen, J. F. Campbell, Dan Hanley, Jas. Munoh, Ben Edwards, Thos. Woods, Jerry, Clawson, W. C. Tyler, Chas. James.

We are afraid that we will have to make a slight recantation in regard to our recent statement that we believed Mr. George S. Shibley to be the only Republican in town. Since the said article appeared we have had neither sleep nor rest, but have been continually besieged by first one party and then another, all of whom seemed anxious to disabuse our mind from such a foolish opinion and to assure us that the woods were full of them. Under the circumstances we believe that the only way to secure our usual peace of mind is to make a retraction, therefore we wish to state that we made a mistake and that we now believe that there's about a million of them here.

The merry-go-round is one of our town institutions now and is doing a rushing business. It is curious to notice how many and how varied are the people who can be drawn about by a merry-go-round. It seems to attract persons of all ages and conditions and it is very amusing to notice the many little tricks and schemes to which people will resort in order to enjoy the pleasure of a ride without being made the laughing stock of their friends. The one which appears to be used the most and with the greatest success in one which was employed by some of our friends. The scheme as worked by them is this:—The party desiring to ride first waits until some small child of his acquaintance (if a relative all the better) who is desirous of having a ride is to be found. He then suddenly discovers that he would like to give the child a ride but cannot trust it to go alone and then concludes to go along with the little one to take care of it. This is a smooth scheme and is very easily worked. Indeed our friends Johnny and Sid were so engrossed with pleasing the boy they caught the other evening that they rode the poor youngster about an hour after which time they quit, very reluctantly, for fear that the continual riding would make the boy sick. Smooth work?

There is another scheme, also much used by the young ladies. This is simply to pay the man in charge on the quiet and give him the tip. You then stand with your friends until the machine is about ready to start when the gentlemen usually discover that it is loaded on one side more heavily than on the other and politely asks you as a special favor to him to ride in a certain place to restore the equilibrium. This always works well and is an old standby. It is the scheme usually employed by one young man but he is full of resources and has many others at his own hand.

THE LADIES.
The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use Syrup of Figs, under all conditions makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Company, printed near the bottom of the package. For sale by all responsible druggists.
